

W.W.BOYD, Sworn for the State. I know C. W. Burke. I run the Terminal Restaurant. Albert McKnight was working in the restaurant in the capacity as pot washer. On the 15th of April 1914, Burke came to me and told me that McKnight wanted to quit. I did not know McKnight until Burke came and told me that he wanted to quit. Lehon and another man were with Burke at the time. Burke talked with McKnight, I don't know how long, over in the colored cafe. I assumed that McKnight wanted to quit and I let him go.
